SENIOR CLASS

Along the corridor of life
Many doors open and many doors close,
And within the limits of each door
Are mysteries no one knows.
But we must think,
We must know, we must believe,
And open doors which lie ahead
And behind the closed doors leave.
Have courage to go beyond each door
And always strive to seek for more.
Have courage to open doors unknown —
E'n those that others left alone
Be brave and true and open all;
Be brave and true though you may fall.
And as you walk the corridor,
Do not regret what went before;
But keep your faith and keep your head
And open the doors which lie ahead.

Dedication

MISS JULIA CASTELLI

We, the Senior Class of 1961, do hereby dedicate our Triad to Miss Julia Castelli for her patient and faithful service to our class. Her loyalty and sincerity have guided us through these past four years, and now as we are about to cross the threshold of adulthood, we wish to say, "Thank you."

APPRECIATION

MR. LEONARD LIEBERMAN

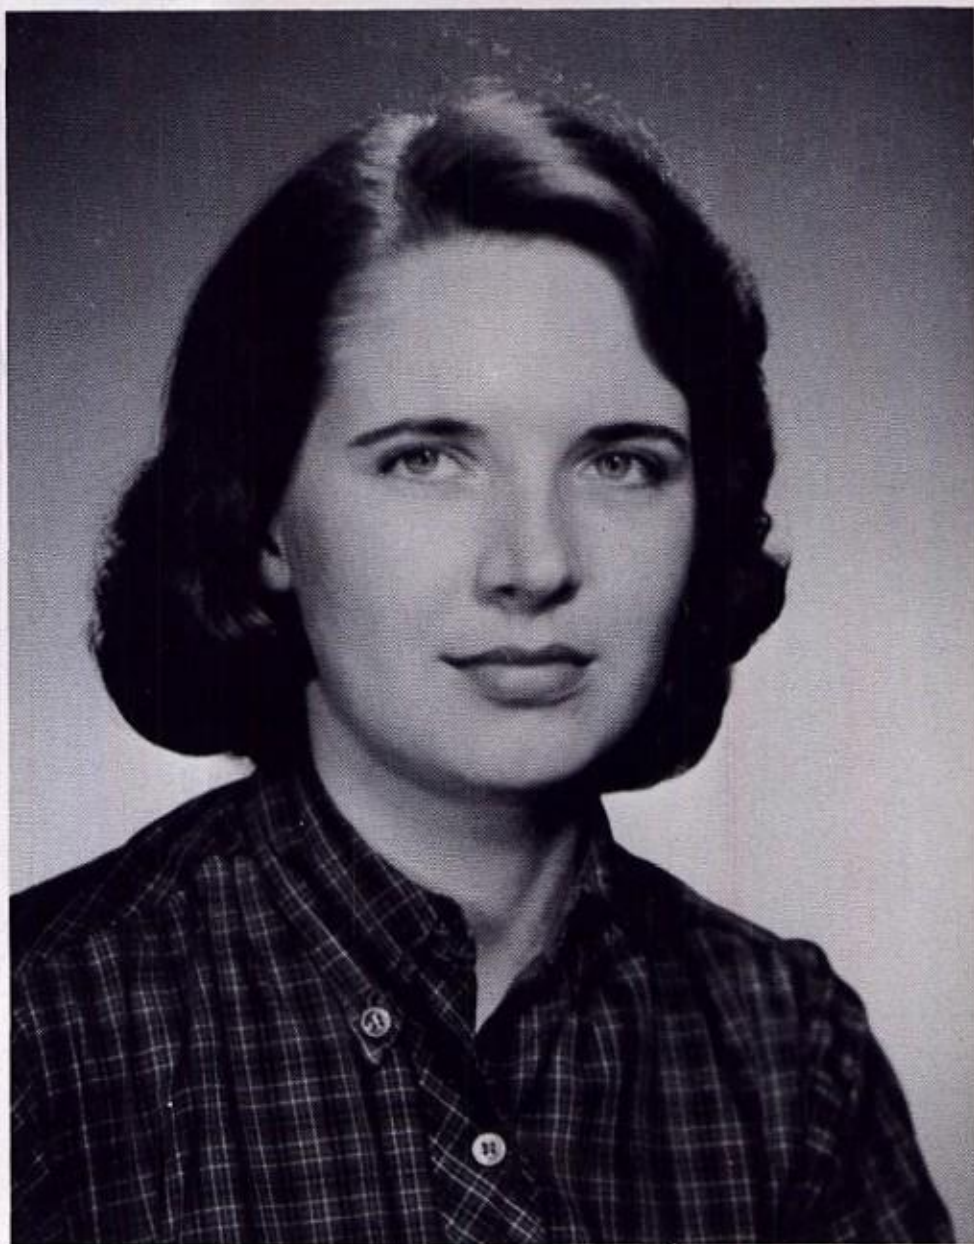

We, the Class of 1961, want to take the opportunity to express to Mr. Lieberman our gratitude for the guidance, encouragement, and support he has given us in the past few years. Mr. Lieberman has been our advisor for about two and one-half years. During that time, he appeared at all our class meetings, helping when we needed help. He was around whenever we needed him.

The Class of '61, with all sincerity can say, "Thank you, Mr. Lieberman, for everything."

Muriel Chetwynd

MISS MURIEL CHETWYND

We, the Class of 1961, would like to show our sincere appreciation for all the time and work which you have given to us. We can not express our deepest thanks adequately; but we can say "Muchas gracias."

Our Prom

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of Valley Regional, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, as members of the class of 1961.

- I, Pinky Ackerman, leave the sophomores hoping they have as much fun as I have had in my senior year.
- I, Aniela Adamcyk, leave with the satisfaction that the Goofers have won a game.
- I, Paulette Alexander, leave knowing that there will never be another Alexander around to torment the administration and faculty.
- I, Beverly Anselmi, leave my fourth seat in the middle row in Mr. Norris' room, to any junior who likes to be hidden from the teachers.
- I, Karen Archambault, leave wishing that the athletic department would buy some smaller uniforms.
- I, Barbara Bangs, leave to Bette Jette my easy to open gym locker, No. 1128, because she hasn't the strength to open her own.
- I, Ginger Banks, leave happily, looking forward to the years ahead.
- I, Jean Bargnesi, leave to my quiet sister Linda, my ability to make noise, hoping she will put it to good use.
- I, Sally Barocelli, leave hoping my sister Nancy has as much fun in her remaining years at V. R. H. S. as I have had.
- I, Suzi Bates, leave my height to Mr. Watkins so he can be just a little bit taller.
- I, Bill Beni, leave locker No. 11 in the 100 corridor, to anyone brave enough to withstand the rush of the seventh and eighth graders at dismissal time.
- I, James Bertelli, leave happily.
- I, John Beveridge, leave to Mr. Watkins, a life-time pass to Slenderella.
- I, Betty Bianca, leave my physics book to any junior brave enough to take it.
- I, Kenny Blomerth, leave.
- I, Carl Boe, leave Mr. Norris, one good dictionary of "50-cent words".
- I, Louis Bonanomi, leave my favorite parking space to the best "Mill" in the junior class.
- I, Robin Brooke, leave knowing that three of the family have finished V. R., and three more are yet to come.
- I, Nancy Brooks, leave the public speaking class quiet!
- I, Richard Burr, leave Valley Regional and its school spirit to the administration.
- I, Thomas Burton, leave with the knowledge that Mr. McGrath and Mr. Tippin will sooner or later accept J. F. K. as a great president.
- I, Linnea Calamari, leave my seat as accompanist to the glee club for anyone brave enough to take it.
- I, Judy Carini, leave to Miss Borsik, all the people who have my willingness (?) to go to the blackboard.
- I, Alvin Carlson, leave all my nicknames to anyone who wants them.
- I, Jane Carlsten, leave my height to anyone who can stretch into it.
- I, Sylvia Carter, leave my position as secretary of the band, to another musician who will have to struggle with the points.
- I, Arthur Christianson, leave knowing that I have already asked Gail to all next year's dances.
- I, Faye Clark, leave to Carole Palau, my ability to catch the school bus in the morning.
- I, Melissa Colvin, leave to Mary Lou Gross, my Warriors cry "Get It" — May thy lungs be ever vibrant.
- I, Mary Contestabile, leave my place in the glee club to any girl who can sing tenor.
- I, William Cook, leave hoping anyone going to New York on the Western Civ. trip, will not miss the train on the way home.
- I, Nancy Cooper, leave, taking everything with me.
- I, Judy Cunningham, leave my position on the cheerleading squad to anyone with strong lungs.
- I, Sheryl Daniels, leave to Carol Mozzochi, the task of beating Joanne Breslin for the star

- position on the hockey and basketball team.
- I, Carl Dolle, leave my parking place to Tom Kurek.
 - I, Patricia Dugall, leave all the trials, tribulations, and satisfaction connected with the Vali-Hi Echo to the next "lucky" Editor-in-Chief.
 - I, Bill Echtman, leave Valley Regional for good times in the Coast Guard.
 - I, Carlene Ek, leave my number 9 basketball uniform to anyone big enough to fit into the bloomers.
 - I, Harold Elston, leave this school, hoping to succeed elsewhere.
 - I, Cynthia Eno, leave Valley Regional, hoping to return as a Registered Nurse.
 - I, Rick Evans, leave.
 - I, Harry Fanslau, leave knowing there will never be another class like the one of '61'.
 - I, Sandra Forman, leave to my sister Nancy, three more years at Valley Regional.
 - I, Sandra Gilson, leave to join my better half.
 - I, Stella Grief, leave to my sister my seat in P. O. D., hoping she will do better than I.
 - I, Kenny Grzybowski, leave.
 - I, Kerry Guptill, leave to tend to spread our particular American culture throughout our magnificent south.
 - I, David Hallden, leave to greener pastures — I hope!
 - I, Richard Harrington, leave to Mr. McKee, all that I taught him about hunting.
 - I, Marilyn Haser, leave hoping that the V. R. H. S. band will be able to have an exchange concert every year.
 - I, Caroline Hazuka, leave the job as Editor of the Triad to any junior who is lucky enough to have the time and patience to do it.
 - I, Leonard Hedwall, leave to Valley Regional, all my books and my troubles except one, Joanne Waz.
 - I, Skip Hubbard, leave with the hope that Mr. Renton will lead more students through the doors of the Domain of Intellectual Achievement and enlighten them in the realm of the hypocycloid with four cusps and the googolplex.
 - I, Strick Hyde, leave knowing that my brother Dave will take care of all the girls that I have left behind.
 - I, Bonnie Joslyn, leave hoping that this year's Junior Prom Queen, will become the Student Council secretary so V. R. H. S. doesn't break a three-year tradition.
 - I, Donald Kelting, leave to Robert Stannard, my complete set of phony passes.
 - I, Patty Kisselbrack, leave to Mr. Norris the word "particular" which he said forty-six times in fifty-four minutes.
 - I, Peter Koritkoski, leave — absolutely nothing!
 - I, Robert Kurek, leave V. R. planning to have a good time in the Coast Guard.
 - I, Craig Larson, leave an extra large red sock and a picture of Ted Williams for Mr. Muggleston.
 - I, Joan Lietgeb, leave to my brother Buddy, seven more years, and to my sister Jerry, two more years at V. R. H. S.
 - I, Carolyn Linguadoca, leave to the school, my basketball uniform, knowing I'll never grow into it.
 - I, Roger Loven, leave my Physics book for whoever thinks he can use it to good advantage.
 - I, Alan Macgregor, leave wishing a certain someone was leaving with me.
 - I, Mary Ann McCarthy, leave my name as shortest and hot rod to Karen Ganter, knowing she has the ability to carry it upward.
 - I, Penny Malcarne, leave, but will return occasionally to visit, and see how the youngest member of our family is getting along.
 - I, Faline Mather, leave hoping that my sister and brother, Jayne and Paul, will be able to get as much enjoyment, fun, and accomplishment at Regional in their remaining years as I did.
 - I, Dad Milardo, leave my nickname "Fingers" to anyone who has the right qualifications.
 - I, Henry Moeller, leave my bull thrower's license to Coach McKee who thinks he can throw the bull better than I.
 - I, Joan Moody, leave to my sister Martha, four more pleasant years at V. R. H. S.
 - I, Leila Moorhouse, leave, finally!
 - I, William Mordhorst, leave, happy to be leaving.
 - I, Curt Morris, leave my ability to have two dates on the same night to anyone who has

- as much skill as I do. Good luck!!!
- I, Jill O'Dell, leave my car to anyone who thinks he is a good enough mechanic to fix it.
- I, Mary Ellen Olin, leave my long blonde hair to some unfortunate (?) brunette who wants a change.
- I, Wendell Patterson, leave my talking ability to all the bashful juniors.
- I, Paulette Patillo, leave to Margaret Castelli, my seat in P. O. D. class, if she can stand sitting in it.
- I, Colette Paulet, leave my American sister Carole, to Young Blood.
- I, Carolyn Pettinato, leave this school to the termites — knowing they can take care of it better than I.
- I, Robert Pike, leave my seat in the art room to Jim Grieder.
- I, Margaret Pollard, leave my duties in the library to anyone who wants a full-time job.
- I, Charles Post, leave knowing I will never come back.
- I, Robert Post, leave nothing; I'm taking everything with me for I'll need it wherever I'm going after graduation.
- I, Topper Pratt, leave with the hope that V. R. H. S. will strive to improve.
- I, David Puffer, leave my ability to avoid homework to anyone who does the same.
- I, Ed Radzik, leave my locker to Joe Shibles and good will to everyone.
- I, Ronald Redfield, leave knowing that Mr. Tippin will be just as hard next year.
- I, Shirley Ricardi, leave knowing there will never be another student as perfect as I.
(Ha Ha)
- I, Richard Robida, leave.
- I, Patricia Rudewicz, leave with happy memories of the past and lots of plans for the future.
- I, Sally Saunders, leave my desk in office practice to my sister because it is too heavy to take with me.
- I, Joanne Sbrolla, leave my seat in P. O. D. to my brother Jimmy, hoping he will fill it better than I.
- I, George Scherber, leave to Mr. Groth, the Wood Working III class of next year, hoping that he will have as much fun as he had with us. (Ha)
- I, Denny Schultz, leave Miss Borsik my new formula for the amount of lift required to pick up her usually full brief-case.
- I, Gary Schwab, leave finally, feeling free.
- I, John Seibert, leave to my brother Bob, ability to "slick up" as well as I did.
- I, Cathy Smith, leave lots of luck and success to Patty, Barbara, and Charleen.
- I, Henry Stoczek, leave as a leaf left the leaf laden tree and slowly fell to reality. The ground, which makes up earth's gray face, upon which is run the insidious race — life. I go to awaken the world.
- I, Knob Swan, leave my front seat in the left row of 317 (sometimes called the McGrath agitating section) to any up-and-coming anti-Republican.
- I, Elaine Tiezzi, leave hoping Mr. Szypula can carry on without me.
- I, Grace Tuttle, leave Mrs. Woodmansee in a state of confusion.
- I, Carole Underwood, leave my seat in the ticket booth to any junior who has LOTS of school spirit.
- I, Dirk Van Heiningen, leave, wishing I didn't have to; and I leave my chair in the band to Ray Archambault. Good luck Ray.
- I, Kathy Watrous, leave my ability in gym to Bruce Watrous.
- I, Carol Weiler, leave my sister Kathy unchaperoned for the next three years.
- I, Barbara Whaples, leave knowing our class will never be together again.
- I, Joy Whiting, leave my position on the cheerleading squad to anyone who wants the nickname "Superman".
- I, Peter Wilcox, leave the school.
- I, Linda Wind, leave my field hockey stick to the next bench warmer on the team.
- I, Edward Wolock, leave Valley Regional High School, "I hope".
- I, Linda Woodcock, leave Darlene Rankin to have fun as a senior next year.
- I, Peter Wurschy, leave my size 7½ soccer shoes to John Pierson whose size 11 feet won't fit into them.
- I, Cathy Zeh, leave my nickname Zsa Zsa to my sister Lorraine.
- I, Richard Zivitski, leave my saushphone to anyone who thinks he can handle it.

MY DIARY

June 22, 1966

Dear Diary:

The class of 1961 of V. R. H. S. just had their first class reunion after five years. It was so good to see everyone again. Because the reunion got over so late, I will not be able to give detailed information about each one of my classmates, so I will just list them.

Pinky Ackerman has opened her own grocery store across the street from Bennie's Farm Market.

Aniela Adamcyk is a Math professor at UCONN working under the supervision of Mr. Paul Renton.

Paulette Alexander is owner of the largest chewing gum factory in the world.

Dearest Boobs Willets (My "funny" looking sister), (really you're not funny looking)

Remember the times we have had and God-Damn it we'll have more! Remember the tree that was always falling over and remember why we were up on the hill in your back-yard. I wonder what your father thought when he mowed the yard up there. Remember our attic and paper cups? I do! especially in the morning!!!!!!! Member Cole Porter. That was a cool program. Does Pettipang bring back any memories? I should. The raft last summer just beyond Pettipang wasn't fun. Last summer when you and I and [unclear] were down there. That was funny. We had [unclear] together last summer and [unclear] Pizzis so [unclear] about the [unclear] we had, let's about the times we are going to have this summer. With you at W.M.I. and we at Rosemary Hall, we will have a blast!!! we can work hard and play hard too. This summer we can do all sorts of things, at the country club, at Pettipang, at the beach, at your house and mine, trying to catch Tombo and trying to keep Dick. (I'm really not a member of R.H.S. but I'll write in it anyway!) You know something killy, you're really swell and cute, this and a Boy Cacher! CLASSES is really crazy if he doesn't like you and I'm sure he does. Honestly Willets, you'll never believe me will you. I know you'll have fun at Ellie's to nite and for God's sake believe me. I know I'm right! It's always right. You're sweet, nice, cute, good personality this, at cute clothes and all that, (now let me tell the front-on-Sports Page.) truth. (is just for

CRABBED AGE AND YOUTH

Crabbèd Age and Youth
Cannot live together:
Youth is full of pleasance,
Age is full of care;
Youth like summer morn,
Age like winter weather;
Youth like summer brave,
Age like winter bare.
Youth is full of sport,
Age's breath is short;
Youth is nimble, Age is lame;
Youth is hot and bold,
Age is weak and cold;
Youth is wild and Age is tame.
Age, I do abhor thee,
Youth, I do adore thee.
